SENDHAJI HARCHANDJI THAKOR (KOLI)

Versus

STATE OF GUJARAT

Appearance:

1. Special Civil Application No. 11066 of 2001

MR HD CHUDASAMA for Petitioner No. 1

MR SS PATEL, AGP for Respondents No. 1-3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 18/12/2001

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 12-4-2001 passed by the District Magistrate, Banaskantha at Palanpur, and he has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, she cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and learned APP for the State. Also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detenu has submitted a representation by to the authority on 5-5-2001 and same has been received by the authority and rejected on 19-5-2001 by the authority and hence, there is a delay in deciding the representation. Producing the original letter received by the detenu in Central Jail, Porbandar, learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn my attention that though the representation has been rejected on 19-5-2001, same has been communicated to the detenu on 14-6-2001 and hence, there is a delay in communicating the decision to the detenu. Copy of the letter received by the detenu is ordered to be taken on record. He has relied upon the case of Harish Pahwa Vs. State of U.P. and others, AIR 1981 S.C. 1126, more particularly para 3 which runs as under:

> "The representation made by a detenu has to be considered without any delay. The Supreme Court does not look at equanimity upon delays when the liberty of a person is concerned. Calling comments from other departments, seeking the opinion of Secretary after Secretary and allowing the representation to lie without being attended to is not the type of action which the State is expected to take in a matter of such vital importance. It is the duty of the State to proceed to determine representations with the utmost expedition, which means that the matter must be taken up for consideration as soon as such a representation is received and dealt with continuously (unless it is absolutely necessary to wait for some assistance in connection with it) until a final decision is taken and communicated to the detenu. Where this is not done the detention has to be declared unconstitutional."

4. In the present case, it appears that the detenu has sent the representation on 5-5-2001 to the authority and though said representation has been rejected by the authority on 19-5-2001, same has been communicated to the detenu on 14-6-2001 i.e. after a period of 26 days. However, no explanation has been putforward by the authority by filing an affidavit explaining satisfactorily the delay caused in communicating the decision to the detenu and hence, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 12-4-2001 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu Sendhaji Harchandji Thakor (Koli) is hereby ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs. Direct service is permitted.
